introducing ABOUT ME

Who is Glynis Brits? I am a mother of 2 and grandmother to 7 beautiful grandchildren.

My Spiritual journey began way back in the 70's when I became very interested in communication with the spirit world.

Over time I began to develop my own clairvoyant skills and the rest is history, as they say! I have been doing readings and teaching for over 20 years.

Through the gentle coaxing by my Spirit Guides, I added the role of Spiritual Life Coach to my port folio and I absolutely love what I do!

VISION

I believe we are all clairvoyant and we all have the ability to connect into the spirit realm to bring through messages for ourselves and for others, should we so choose.

It is my vision that one day, we will all understand this and that through my work, I will be able to teach as many people as possible to communicate with the Universal Consciousness, the Spirit Realm and Loved Ones who have crossed over into Spirit.

The main focus of my readings is to always assist my clients with the challenges that they face in their life. Together with my Spirit Guides, we bring enlightenment, understanding and insight to those who seek me out.

I always encourage my clients to put together specific questions that they want the Guides to answer so that the time that is spent with me, is both powerful and beneficial to them.

Most importantly, is that my clients leave my space being empowered to carry on with their lives in a way that they feel they can

SPIRITUAL LIFE COACHING

As a Spiritual Life Coach I work with you to change your life through understanding who you are and why you show up in the world in the way that you do. I help you to explore your deep-seated beliefs – essentially your personal truth – and especially those beliefs that prevent you from living your best life.

Through your sessions with me, you will find your connection to the divine and in so doing, manifest your best life!

When you understand yourself from a spiritual perspective, your life becomes so much easier to 'do'. You begin to understand your 'why' and in understanding your 'why', you make that much-needed connection to your life purpose.

Through Spiritual Life Coaching, we will work together to heal those wounds that have become so much a part of your DNA. We will unpack the big things in your life that have affected you for too long and I will guide you to understand, from a spiritual perspective, why you are still affected and then, give you what you need to bring about the healing that you need.
